

Triacta Welcomes Wojo Zielonka to its Board of Directors

October 30, 2008 – Almonte ON: Triacta Power Technologies, Inc., is pleased to announce that Wojo Zielonka has been elected to the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Zielonka joins Jim McGee (founder of ObjecTime), Tom Tamblyn (founding member of the Canadian Association of Energy Service Companies), and Rob Brennan, Triacta's President and CEO as Board Members.

A Board seat recently became available as Dr. Michael Caughey completed his agreed term. "Mike has served Triacta and its' shareholders diligently for the past five years. We have benefited greatly from his experience, perspective and wisdom. We offer Mike our heartfelt thanks and best wishes.", stated Rob Brennan.

Wojo Zielonka brings strong financial acumen and acquisition experience to Triacta's Board of Directors. He is currently the Chief Financial Officer at Solace Systems. Prior to joining Solace, Wojo held CFO and CIO positions with the Hydro Ottawa Group of Companies. Previously, he held several senior positions with General Electric, where he was involved with market expansion and acquisition activities in the US, Mexico, Ireland, England and Poland. Wojo is a Chartered Accountant, a CPA and holds a BA from Carleton University.

"We are excited to have Wojo join our Board", says Rob Brennan, "I am confident that his expertise in finance and his global business perspective will aid Triacta in our ongoing expansion plans."

About Triacta

Triacta is a leading developer and manufacturer of smart meters. Triacta makes it easy for facility managers, energy service and utility companies to individually bill residential and commercial tenants for the energy that they consume.
